

Our course would start on the hiking trails in the east of the park doing a clockwise loop from the start line in the middle parking lot. Once to the paved bike trail we would begin a counterclockwise (or clockwise if the park desires it) loop of the yellow trail. After finishing the entire loop of the yellow trail athletes would finish the last part of the hiking trail to the parking lot finish line